

Schools at the Charterhouse

In partnership with the Museum of London, the Charterhouse is opening its doors to schools. A former medieval monastery, Tudor mansion and Victorian school, this stunning site offers pupils the chance to engage with the remarkable history of London and the nation

Our inspiring workshops have strong links to the National Curriculum, particularly History, RE and English. Sessions take place on Mondays between 10:30-14:30 and Tuesdays to Fridays between 10:30-12:30. Each session lasts for 2 hours and can accommodate up to 35 students. Charges apply, see website for details. Lunchroom space available on request.

PRIMARY (KS1 & KS2)

Charterhouse Now and Then (KS1)

Discover our fascinating history from silent monks and Tudor nobles to schoolboys and gentlemen pensioners.

Fit for a Queen (KS1 & KS2)

Meet Queen Elizabeth I in this costumed interpreter-led session and help her ensure the Charterhouse is fit for a queen!

Tracing the Past (KS2)

Calling all detectives! Search the Charterhouse for evidence of key people linked to our fascinating medieval, Tudor and Victorian history.

The Black Death (KS2)

Explore one of London's only surviving plague pits and discover causes, 'cures' and consequences in this exciting session.

Hands-on Tudors (KS2)

Explore the Reformation in this dual site session at the Charterhouse and Museum of London. Handle objects, try on clothing and experience Tudor life.

SECONDARY (KS3 & KS4)

Henry VIII's London

Examine the impact of the English Reformation on the lives of those at the Charterhouse before debating the arguments at the Museum of London in this dual site session.

Recording the Past: The Black Death

Investigate the Black Death in this dual site session at the Charterhouse and London Metropolitan Archives.

People and Power

Discover our remarkable history and hear about how changes in ownership document a shift in power, status and religion.

Look. Think. Draw.

Extend pupils' observation and visual literacy skills as you document the changing architecture of the Charterhouse.

People and Protest

Compare medieval protest in relation to the dissolution of the monasteries before staging an onsite protest linked to a contemporary issue of your choice.

SEND

We offer free multi-session projects that encourage exploration through sensory engagement and activities. Programme supported by The Haberdashers' Company.

LOTTERY FUNDED

"It gave the children a real-life experience of an historical period that otherwise would be completely abstract to them"
